“My Fair Lady”

Weds., June 27th 10am - 7pm

Tony-winning director Bartlett Sher (The King and I, Fiddler on the Roof) helms this brand new production of Loewe and Lerner's timeless classic for Lincoln Center Theater. Based on George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion, My Fair Lady follows the burgeoning friendship between phonetics professor Henry Higgins (Harry Hadden-Paton) and his pupil, the Cockney flower girl Eliza Doolittle (Lauren Ambrose).

Regarded as one of the greatest musicals of all time, this jubilant show features the songs 'Wouldn't it be Lovely', 'I Could Have Danced All Night', and 'The Rain in Spain'.

For Professor Henry Higgins, a person's voice is of the utmost importance. A student of phonetics, he holds the opinion that with the right accent and tone of speech, anything is achievable. To prove his point, he wagers a friend that he can teach Cockney flower girl Eliza Doolittle to speak 'properly', and then present her as an upper class lady at a high society ball. So the pair's lessons begin, but little does Henry Higgins know, that their time together will change him just as much as it does her!

You will have time for lunch on your own prior to the matinee show.

Cost for the show is $140/person ($128 for Hopewell Twp. residents) and includes Mezzanine tickets and transportation. Departure is from Independence Park off Stephenson Road. Arrive by 9:45am for check-in
